Bangkok Bank China Donation Activity in Year 2023

Recently, Bangkok Bank (China) Company Limited (“Bangkok Bank China”) “The Power of Thai” charity project donation activity has set off again. After two years, the Bank returned to the place it had been concerned about - Gulin Cheng Long School (“the School”) in Sichuan Province. This time, volunteers from Head Office and Beijing Branch donated winter sneakers on behalf of the Bank to all the students there, bringing them warmth in the winter, which is also the ninth winter that the Bank has brought warmth to the children.

Donation Ceremony

With the enthusiastic assistance of the Shanghai Smiles Foundation, the brand-new winter sneakers have already been delivered to the School early. Seeing the nice sneakers, the students were extremely happy. Bank volunteer also donated a batch of stationery to children of needy families in advance to express care to them. At the donation ceremony, the volunteer expressed sincere hope for the students, encouraging them to maintain a positive and optimistic attitude in life, transform the care of society into a strong driving force for self-improvement and determination to succeed, and always cherish the learning environment. The student representatives returned handmade gifts to express their gratitude. After the ceremony, the volunteers participated in a physical education class and actively

During the activity, volunteers also held a lecture on financial knowledge popularization. By selecting typical cases, financial knowledge and risk prevention knowledge such as deposit insurance, Anti-telecom Network Fraud Law, Anti-organized Crime Law, credit investigation, and personal information protection were popularized to the teachers, which helped to enhance the financial literacy of teachers in remote mountainous areas.

In addition, this year, Bangkok Bank China has also donated a batch of sleeping bags to the Poverty Alleviation Foundation of Xuyong County, Sichuan Province as emergency rescue reserve materials for major disasters in remote mountainous areas, which can help local people relieve difficulties in case of emergency and express care from the Bank.

Charity gathers strength to create a better life. Bangkok Bank China has cooperated with Shanghai Smiles Foundation consecutively for ten years to conduct donation activity. As always, the Bank will continue to promote the development of public welfare, actively undertake corporate social responsibility, and carry out "The Power of Thai" public welfare donation activity by entering mountainous areas, bringing more warmth to those in need and transmitting positive social energy.
